Based on the information currently available, the Company estimates that the aggregate amount to be received by stockholders pursuant to the Plan (including cumulative dividends already paid in May, June, July and August of 2018 (the “Cumulative Dividends Paid”), the Initial Liquidating Distribution and Additional Liquidating Distributions) will be between 97% to 98% of the Company’s net asset value (“NAV”) per share as of March 31, 2018 of $13.11, or within a range of $12.72 to $12.85 per share. The Company expects that its delisting will become effective prior to the commencement of trading on or about August 27, 2018, at which time trading in the Common Stock will be indefinitely suspended.

The decision to delist from NASDAQ resulted from the Board's review of numerous factors, particularly the previously announced approval of the Plan by the Company's stockholders, the applicable NASDAQ rules and regulations, the relative benefits generated by the maintenance of a NASDAQ listing, and the cost and feasibility of ongoing compliance with the NASDAQ listing requirements in light of the Company's planned dissolution and liquidation pursuant to the Plan.

Following the delisting, securities brokers may make a market for interests in the Common Stock in the "over-the-counter" market. The Company does not intend to actively facilitate any such market.
